OFFICE

Equipped In Luxuriant Style, Now Tenantless.

Occupied In Everett Building by "Fleming, Barnes & Co."—Not Here Now.

Unpaid Bills Souvenirs of Their Sojourn In Akron
---Attachments Issued by Three Justices
---Replevin Case.

A pink-flowered brussels carpet on the floor, an imposing array of fine desks and chairs, telephones and call bells—that is the appearance of a suite of offices in the Everett building which no longer has a tenant.

He was a business-like appearing man of 50 who rented the offices and had them thus luxuriously furnished a week ago. He gave the name of W. H. Barnes, of Fleming, Barnes & Co., lumber manufacturers, "mills near Stella, Ga." Now Mr. Barnes has gone and creditors and people who cashed checks for him are quite certain that he does not intend returning.

Mr. Barnes employed Mr. Leavitt A. Weeks as his bookkeeper, and also secured the services of a stenographer. He took a check for $350 signed by "Fleming, Barnes & Co.," to the Second National bank and deposited it. He told Mr. Geo. T. Bates that he had some relatives by that name and confidently believed that they were distantly related. However, this was not sufficient to persuade Mr. Bates or the bank to advance money on that check for $350, until they found out what the check was worth. Barnes also endeavored to have drafts on his company honored at the Second National and other banks without success. The Second National telephoned to Stella, Ga., and learned that no such firm as Barnes pretended, existed there.

Mr. Barnes was at the Buchtel while in Akron, and left there and the city Sunday night. He "did" the Buchtel for his board bill and a sum of money to the total value of $20. He "did" Geo. C. Jackson, the printer, for $25 worth of printing. Mr. Augustus Warner, the druggist, is out $10 on a check he cashed and the Union Clothing Co. is short a suit of clothes, given in return for a worthless check for $15.50.

Mr. Leavitt A. Weeks, who was hired as bookkeeper, on Tuesday, had attachment papers issued from Justice Hoffman's court against the office equipment of his late employers. He claims wages amounting to $25. Constable Linnie levied on the goods Tuesday, but a few hours later they were replevined by Mr. B. L. Dodge, who had papers issued from Justice Nash's court. His claim against the alleged Lumber company is for $127, due on equipment for the office.

This replevin case will be tried in Justice Nash's court April 29.

Geo. C. Jackson, the printer, also had attachment papers issued on the office equipment Tuesday to secure payment of his claim for $25. The papers were prepared by Justice Campbell's court, but have not been served.

HETTY GREEN

Was One of Swindler Tompelson's Customers.

He Is Denounced as a Fraud
by Cashier of Fulton Bank---
Not a Novice In His Line.

C. H. Tompelson who has been posing as a horse buyer for the government, is not a novice at the swindling game. Information which has been received in this city develops the fact that he has been in the business for several years.

That he has avoided arrest for so long a time is sufficient evidence of the fact that he is a smooth article. It is not thought that his operations here were very heavy. In Akron he disposed of one or two checks, both for small amounts. In Medina county he was more successful.

Tompelson is a mulatto, almost white. He dresses well and is intelligent. When he first appeared at the Central Savings bank he presented a check for $3,800 drawn on the Southern bank of Fulton, Mo. He did not ask that it be cashed, but requested Cashier J. S. Benner to forward it to Fulton for collection. He was given a receipt for the check, showing that he had left it here for collection. It is presumed that he used this receipt to fool the farmers, telling them that it was given to him as evidence of a deposit for the amount he claimed to have here. The man was a good conversationalist. Among other things he said that he had been in the horse business for several years and that he had sold to some of the most prominent people in the United States. Mrs. Hetty Green, of New York, he said was one of the parties that he had purchased horses for. He claimed that she had paid him $2,000 recently for a team.

Wednesday morning a letter was received from the cashier of the Fulton bank. It read:

"C. H. Tompelson is a fraud. This is the third draft on us in the last three weeks. The first came from Indiana under the name of C. H. Smith, the second from Columbus, O., under the name of C. H. Anderson, and now C. H. Tompelson. This same party operated in North Missouri, two years ago, drawing on us. We would like to hear of his arrest."

It is believed that he is now in Western Pennsylvania. The towns in that section of the country have been notified to be on the lookout for the man.

Released.

Wm. Urban, who was arrested on suspicion of being wanted for grand larceny in Zanesville, has been released from the City prison. Zanesville officers telephoned that relatives of Urban's refused to prosecute. S. of V. Rifles present "All for His Country," Friday and Saturday night, and Saturday matinee, at Grand Opera house.

HOLE IN THE LUNGS

There are thousands of men and women, as well as ever, with holes in their lungs: consumption stopped.

Consumption stopped is consumption cured. What does it?

Some change in the way of life and Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil.

With the emulsion, give some attention to circumstances: change from a dark damp close room to a sunny dry airy one; from city to country; from hard to an easy life; indoors to out.

A hole in the lungs once healed is no worse than a too-tight waist or waistcoat.

Take the emulsion, and give it a chance to heal the wound.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

CAME TO LIFE

While Lying In Her Coffin—
Mourners Surprised.

Chattanooga, Tenn., April 23.—(Sp.)

Mrs. Frank Marlow came to life while lying in a coffin in a room where the funeral services were being held at her home at Merrimac near Huntsville, Ala. The room was full of friends and the preacher was about to begin his remarks when the supposed corpse, which was lying in plain view of the mourners, gasped and drew a long breath. It was found that the body was warm and that there was a feeble pulse. A physician was sent for and for more than an hour Mrs. Marlow's relatives and friends believed that she would live. She regained consciousness but died in a short time. The services were continued and the body was interred in Maple Hill cemetery. Mrs. Marlow died of colic.

"CIRCUS DAY"

It Is Only Two Weeks Distant.

Advertising Crew Handicapped by Bad Roads.

The Wallace "Greatest Shows on Earth" will be in Akron two weeks from tomorrow—Thursday, May 9. The first advertising car is now in Akron and the crew of 18 men is quartered at the Empire.

It is the work of these men to put up bills for the show in all the surrounding country. In this, however, they are sadly handicapped here, the country roads being little less than impassable.

Is Akron's Candidate

In the Race For Department Commander of G. A. R.

Adjutant J. S. Taggart is one of the most enthusiastic supporters of Maj. E. F. Taggart for the election as Department Commander of the Ohio G. A. R.

"A great many people suppose that we are relatives," said the Adjutant, today, "but there is no blood relationship between us. I believe the Major would make a splendid Department Commander, and that's why I am doing all I can for him. The same is true of every other comrade in Summit county."

Maj. Taggart's chief rival for the election is Mr. Squires, of Toledo. It is claimed that out of three Toledo posts Maj. Taggart will receive the support of two. The votes of the delegates from Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus and posts in a number of other cities are also claimed to be pledged to the Akron man, and his election is regarded as assured.

ENTERTAINMENT.

Prominent Artists Will Appear In Program at Dr. Cole's Home

On the evening of May 3, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Cole, 120 Arch st., another of a series of entertainments being given for the benefit of First Baptist church, will be held.

The entertainment will be readings by Mr. Edison M. Robinson, who in that work has established a brilliant reputation, and solos by Mrs. Richard Ward, Akron's gifted contralto.

Mr. Robinson as a reader combines with natural ability the strength of thorough training, dramatic force and pleasing personality. Lately he has appeared before a number of the best audiences in this city, and by meritorious work, has won praise and popularity to such extent that few local entertainments are considered complete without his appearance in the program.

Mrs. Ward's reputation as a contralto singer of exceptional merit is such as to insure the popularity of the announcement that she will participate in the program at Dr. Cole's home.

PANIC STRICKEN.

Hudson People Greatly Alarmed---

They Fear a Smallpox Epidemic.

Health Officer Lelek is extremely indignant at the members of the health board and citizens of Hudson on account of their actions in regard to the death of Otto Neubauer of this city, of black smallpox, at Hudson on Sunday night, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Dr. Lelek said yesterday that the members of the health board of the village had acted in an outrageous manner and if there was any spread of disease it would be attributed to their negligence. The disease was first declared to be measles, and the students were allowed to go in and out as usual, according to Dr. Lelek. Dr. Gelb of this city was summoned and at once pronounced the case black smallpox and then, Dr. Lelek says, the citizens of the village became fairly panic stricken.

Great difficulty was experienced in securing a hearse to carry the remains of Neubauer to the grave. It was only after Dr. Lelek sent a message to the state board of health that the citizens consented to the use of the dead wagon.

Dr. Gelb of this city has vaccinated the 20 students under quarantine at the academy and every precaution is being taken to prevent any spread of the disease.

It is now believed that young Neubauer contracted the disease from an East End house, over which he was acting as quarantine guard during the Easter vacation. A young lady who was in the house sympathized with Neubauer as he walked to and fro in front of the place and invited him inside out of the cold to eat his lunch. Young Neubauer, forgetting the orders of the physician, yielded to the invitation and it is thought contracted the disease in this manner.

Poor Old Bentley Wormald

Is Believed to be

Nearing His End.

Bentley Wormald is to go to the infirmary—not because he wishes it, but because his condition is such that it is impracticable to grant his request that he be allowed to stay in the City Prison until he feels better.

Prisonkeeper John E. Washer believes that Wormald has reached the point of a general breaking down. Though he has suffered exposure and hard living enough to have killed many men in the past 20 years his constitution has withstood all attacks until now.

Wormald is credited with having the largest Police Court record ever reached in Akron. Prisonkeeper Washer says he has been arrested 50 times, seldom for any offense but intoxication. Combined, the workhouse sentences he has served cover a period of several years. He is about 60 years old.

Crowded to Overflowing

Is the Howe School---

Four More Rooms Needed.

Supt. Hotchkiss reported to the Board of Education Tuesday night that the crowded condition at the Howe school would warrant the building of four extra rooms. In line of the rooms, which are of but ordinary size, the average number of pupils in each room is 53. In the room formerly used as an office by the principal are 27 pupils, and there are 42 children in the Kindergarten department.

It was thought that the new Miller building would have relieved this situation, but it is now found impracticable unless a change is made in the present boundary lines so pupils can be distributed among the Miller, Allyn and Leggett buildings. Even this would not adjust the matter in the most satisfactory manner.

The Superintendent's report was placed in the hands of the New Buildings and Schools and Disciplines committees to report at the next meeting.
